

Collaboration and Negotiation for Leaders

Dispute Resolution Institute

Learn from the experts

Leaders in local government are increasingly called upon to exhibit proficiency in a range of skills from conflict management, to bringing together groups with diverse opinions, to cultural competency. This training series, led by internationally renowned faculty, is designed to equip leaders with the skills and knowledge necessary to excel in this challenging environment.

Created exclusively for AMC members, this interactive series of trainings will address the following topics, among others:

- The skills, constraints and dynamics of negotiation
- Key communication and conflict processing skills required for successfully navigating challenging conversations
- Components of successful public engagement and dialogue
- The influence of culture on decision making and public dialogue
